In Memoriam

The Rev. Kenneth L. Beale Sr. passed away on Saturday, May 14, 2016. He was 89.

Raised in Eden Methodist Church, he served in World War II in the U.S. Army and as a pastor and chaplain throughout his ministerial career. He was married to the former Anna Carey for 66 years until she passed in 2014.

He served Jarrettown United Methodist Church for nearly 34 years, from 1959 until his retirement in 1992. After retirement, he became an associate pastor at Chalfont UMC for 24 years and continued to work as a chaplain at Abington Hospital.

Anniversary/Recognition of Members – May 15th

Celebrating the 120 years that Chalfont United Methodist church has had a presence in the community of Chalfont. On May 15th we honored those current members who have been an important part of CUMC for over 40 years. An arbor was purchased in their honor. The arbor will be used in one of our new gardens.

40+ years of membership & new members from confirmation class.

Visiting the original church location on Main Street in Chalfont now occupied by a Spanish congregation.
